Mrs Effa Manley,
71-Crawford St,
Newark 2, N.J.

Dear Mrs Manley:

Your letter on May the 28th, and also on June 1st, was received very glad to hear from you. I will send you a check for league dues and also for Harry Williams fine.

Concerning our rained out games, we should be able to work out one date in Newark and one date in Baltimore. I have Tuesday June 26th, and Friday June 29th, open. in case we should schedule one or the two dates, where could we play on the 27 and 28th? I would,nt like to stay idle no more than I could help.

About playing the Eagles in Trenton July the 5th. I am playing the Philadelphia Stars here in Baltimore on the night of July the 4th, by playing here on the night of the 4th, it will to tough of a jump to play in Trenton on the 5th. we might arrange to play in Newark on the 6th, and in Baltimore on the 8th. we can go to Virginia after the 8th. please let me hear from you concerning this matter.

Very truly yours
